March - May 2024 (Lent & Easter included)

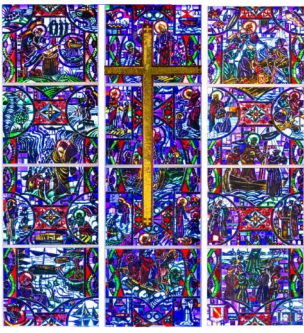

Calvary

United Methodist Church

301 Rowe Blvd., Annapolis, MD 21401 | www.calume.org

Lenten Worship

Lent is a 40-day time of preparation for celebrating our Lord's Resurrection on Easter Sunday. Lent is a church season beginning on Ash Wednesday (Feb. 14, 2024), not counting Sundays and ending on Holy Saturday. Lent is a time for people to begin or renew spiritual disciplines. This can include daily prayer, fasting (giving up a specific food or technology), daily scripture study, daily confessing our need to change our ways and caring for others. Prayerfully, let's ask God for the strength to grow our faith this Lenten season.

REMAINING WEEKS OF LENTEN WORSHIP SERIES

Sharing Our God Stories

This Lenten season (six Sundays before Easter), our worship theme is Sharing Our God Stories. Simply said, a God story is when we share about God's presence and power in our lives. Through the power of the Holy Spirit this Lent 2024, we're learning how to strengthen and enhance our God stories through word, action and deed.

Remaining Sundays in Lent, 10:00 AM (In-Person & Online via YouTube)

- Mar 3 The Call of the Prophets
- Mar 10 Jesus: Presence and Compassion
- Mar 17 The Church - Bold and Bodacious

- HOLY WEEK -

Palm / Passion Sunday

Messiah, G. F. Handel

Sunday, March 24 | 10:00 AM

This service embodies the sharp contrasts of Holy Week. In the beginning with joy, we celebrate Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem with all waving palm branches. The Calvary Choir, with soloists and orchestra, will lead in worship singing less familiar parts of George Frederick Handel's masterpiece Messiah. Together, we will meditate the passion and death of our Lord Jesus Christ through scripture from the prophet Isaiah, King David, and the Gospels of John and Matthew. As the service ends, we enter the passion and cross of our Lord in silence.

Maundy Thursday

*For planning purposes, RSVP to church office (410) 268-1776 or use Sign-up Genius link in the eNews by March 18, 2024, to attend Seder & Meal. Limited to 75 participants.
